Burning House

If your house was burning,
what would you take with you?

In 2011, photographer Foster Huntington created a blog called The Burning House (theburninghouse.com), where he invited anyone across the world to visually respond to this question.

His intention was to explore the personal connection that all humans have with material things, as well as the conflict between what is practical,
valuable and sentimental.

INSTRUCTIONS:

If your house was burning, what would you take with you?

Taking inspiration from The Burning House, you will thoughtfully select, arrange & photograph objects that are of importance to you (i.e. possessions that you would grab if your house was burning). Be sure to add a caption listing the objects & why you value them.

In your response, think about how your possessions tell a story about you and what you value. Consider the arrangement, location, and significance of each object.

REMEMBER TO INCLUDE IN YOUR DESCRIPTION:

- 1) a list of the objects in your photo
- 2) what you value in these objects
